2. Introduction

2.1 Objective:

This policy aims at laying down guidelines for all Managers and Employees to adhere to when a new employee joins WAISL.

2.2 Scope & Eligibility:

The policy applies to all employees being hired on permanent and contractual rolls of WAISL Limited and its subsidiaries, across all divisions and locations in India.

3. Policy Details

A structured onboarding process will initiate employee engagement before the employee walks in the door and ensure the employee engages with the organization from day one on the job. Onboarding is a joint effort of both HR and the respective business unit that the employee is joining.

This policy will cover the following 3 stages-

- Pre-Joining
- On the date of Joining
- Day 2 onwards - Post Joining Orientation

4. Process

4.1 Pre- Joining –

Pre-joining stage begins after the candidate accepts the offer letter till the day of joining. It is important that every candidate is kept engaged till the joining date so that the candidate does not feel disengaged and alien on the date of joining.

4.1.1. Recruiter Responsibilities -

- Offer Letter acceptance copy – Recruiter must secure the signed offer letter from the candidate within 3 working days from the date of releasing of the offer letter.
- Information for joining to HR Operations Team – Recruiter needs to inform the HR Onboarding representative of the date of joining of the candidate immediately upon confirmation/ offer acceptance from the candidate.
- Within 3-5 working days, recruiter must receive the 'resignation mail' from the candidate..

4.1.2. HR Onboarding Representative Responsibilities –

- Laptop Requisition – Request for laptop / desktop needs to be raised at least 30 days in advance for the new joiner. In case the date of joining of the new candidate is less than 15 days, spare machine needs to be arranged within 3 working days from the date of onboarding the candidate. In case an existing laptop is being allotted, HR needs to take help from IT to have the existing system reformatted and made ready for the new joiner.
- Workstation Allocation – HR / Admin team needs to ensure that a seat is allocated to the new employee before onboarding the employee.
- Pre-Onboarding Documentation – HR team needs ensure the pre onboarding link is sent to the employee 7 days prior to the actual joining date.

- Interaction with the Candidate - HR needs to ensure that there is an engagement with the candidate on a regular basis so that the candidate feels connected and engaged.
- Parking Pass and Information to Security – HR / admin provides the necessary information to the appropriate personnel to ensure the new employee receives their parking pass and has the means necessary to access the building and their office.
- HR needs to be engaged with the employee and understand if there is any help needed for the day, he/she joins.

4.1.3. Reporting Manager Responsibilities –

- Reporting manager needs to ensure that the handover document from the previous incumbent is ready to be handed over to the new employee.
- Reporting manager needs to ensure that the KRAs and KPIs of the position is ready and approved before discussing the same with the employee.
- Manager needs to finalize a peer / buddy from within the team to ensure the new joiner feels comfortable after being handed over to the reporting manager.
- New employees work location and work schedule / roster needs to be finalized before the joining of the employee.

4.2. Day of Joining –

4.2.1. HR Onboarding Representative Responsibilities –

- Welcoming the new joiner- HR representative needs to be available on the date of joining of the employee to welcome him / her to the organization, thereafter, accompany the new employee to the allocated workstation.
- Joining Forms- New Joiner needs to be handed over the statutory forms and the biometric ID form and Airport Entry Pass form (if needed) for filing. Employee will fill the same and share with HR.
- Background Verification Process Initiation – Within 2 days of joining of the employee, HR needs to initiate the BGV process of the new joiner.
- Code of Conduct Signing – HR will initiate the Code of Conduct document for signing by the new joiner.
- Laptop - HR representative will be handing over the laptop/desktop to the new employee. IT support must be sought to configure the email ID of the new joiner.
- Email ID Creation – Email ID of the employee is ready and respective reporting manager is informed on the date of joining.
- Employee ID Creation – HR Ops team needs to ensure that the employee ID is created and informed to the respective reporting manager on the date of joining.
- New Joining Kit – HR must handover the new joining kit to the employee. New joining kit will consist of stationery, AEP and biometric Do's and Don'ts.
- Floor Walk- HR will take the new joiner for a floor walk and introduce new joiner to the others on the floor.

- Welcome Mail – HR will be responsible for sharing a welcome mail to all employees on day 1 of joining. (Ref. Annexure 1 for standard template)
- Access to Zoho People Portal – HR needs to provide the access to the Zoho People Portal which is the employee HRMS. HR will also take the employee through the basic functionality of the portal to familiarize the new employee
- Medical Insurance Coverage – HR needs to ensure that new employee is covered under the medical insurance from day 1 of joining.
- Documentation and Employee Personal File Completion – HR needs to ensure all documentation is completed as per the joining checklist (ref. Annexure 2) and employee personal file is completed as per the Employee Personal file checklist (ref. Annexure 3)
- Basic Induction – HR will take the employee through a brief induction, covering all essential information and HR policies.
- Handover to Reporting Manager – Once all the initial formalities are completed, the HR representative needs to introduce the new joiner to the respective reporting manager / buddy / peer.

4.2.2. Reporting Manager Responsibilities – Once the new joiner is introduced to the reporting manager by the HR, following needs to be ensured by the reporting manager-

- Introduction to the team & assigning a buddy – Reporting manager needs to introduce the new employee to the rest of the team and at the same time needs to assign a buddy to the new joiner. It is important that either the RM or the buddy is present on the date of joining of the new employee to accompany the new joiner.

4.3. Day 2 onwards (Post Joining Orientation) – Day 2 onwards to the first month of joining period is very important for the organization. New employee is getting used to the new environment, culture, and practices; therefore, it is important to ensure that the employee is completely engaged, and proper handholding is done by both HR and reporting manager to ensure employee feels welcome and wanted.

4.3.1. HR Onboarding Representative Responsibilities:

- KRA and KPI Signoff- HR needs to ensure that the reporting manager signs off the goal sheet of the new employee within 7 working days from the date of joining and uploads the same on the portal.
- Mandatory Trainings – HR needs to ensure that the employee has undergone the following mandatory trainings as part of the new employee orientation program – Cyber Security Awareness, Ethics and Integrity Awareness, POSH Training.
- Payroll Information & Investment Declaration – HR needs to ensure that the employee informed to upload his / her investment declaration details on the Zoho Payroll Portal.
- New Employee Onboarding Feedback – New Employee will be asked to share feedback on the overall onboarding process at the end of 30 days from the date of joining WAISL.

4.3.2. Reporting Manager Responsibilities:

- KRA and KPI Signoff – Manager must finalize and signoff the KRA and KPI with the new joiner within 7 working days from date of joining of the new employee.

- Complete Handover of Activities – Reporting manager needs to ensure that the new employee has received the complete handover of information and documents pertaining to the current job role. The RM needs to take a signoff from both the person giving the handover and the person taking the handover (in case old employee is still in the system). In case the role is a new role, reporting manager needs to ensure he / she has shared all necessary information with the new employee, so that the new employee is well equipped to do the job.
 - Handholding and On the Job Training – It is important that the reporting manager spends enough time with the new joiner in handholding / engaging with him/her for the initial few weeks from date of joining so that the employee can adjust well to the role and environment. Reporting manager needs to ensure all the support is being extended to the new employee from within the team to enable the employee to feel comfortable and engaged.
5. EXCEPTIONS: Any exceptions to this policy or procedure must be approved in advance by the CHRO.
6. REVIEWS & AUDIT: Policy will be reviewed on annual basis by the CHRO.
7. DISCLAIMER: WAISL reserves the right in its absolute discretion to abolish the policy or to alter the terms and conditions. Such discretion may be exercised any time, before; during or after the policy year is completed.
